MAY STEWART.

Manager Taylor announces that he has secured for Monday night, Oct. 23, the distinguished artist, May Stewart, and her excellent company in an elaborate scenic production of the great romantic drama "Ingomar," the Barbarian.

Miss Stewart is one of our most prominent legitimate stars and everywhere she appears her engagement is made the event of the season.

In the company supporting her will be seen some people with a New York and London reputation and is the most expensive organization that has ever visited this section of the country.

All of the scenery used in the production is on "drops" and arrangements are being made to adjust it to the stage and a complete production is promised.

The story of the play is one of absorbing interest, abounding in many thrilling and intense dramatic situations that appeals to all classes of theatergoers.

There is not a dull moment from the rise of the first curtain until it falls on the last act.

A crowded house may be expected and in order to secure choice seats reservations should be made at once to either Kelly Drug Company, Big Stone Gap or Old Dominion Drug Company, Appalachia.

Home Mission Society Meeting.

A goodly number of the faithful members of the Woman Home Mission Society met with Mrs. Otis Mouser on last Thursday afternoon. Quite a lot of work was accomplished and other plans were discussed. They would like to say for the benefit of those who were not present that they certainly missed a good time, as this was one of most enjoyable and enthusiastic meetings they have had. The society meets next Thursday with Mrs. J. W. Kelly for working.

Peters-Harmon

A marriage of interest to a large circle of friends of the contracting parties occurred Wednesday night when Miss Georgia Harmon, of Appalachia, Va., became the bride of Dr. W. B. Peters, also of Appalachia. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. T. Taylor, pastor of West Bristol Baptist church, at his home on Hill street. It was witnessed by a number of friends.

Dr. and Mrs. Peters are now guests at Hotel Bristol and will return to Appalachia Saturday to make their home. They will go to Gate City this morning to pay a brief visit to Dr. Peters' relatives.

Dr. Peters is a well known young physician of Appalachia and has many friends. He is a graduate of the Louisville Medical college. His bride has been telegraph operator for the V. & S. W. at Appalachia for some four years. She is a sister of Mrs. John Avent, formerly of Bristol, whose husband was trainmaster of the V. & S. W. She has for the past year made her home with Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Rader, formerly of Bristol, and is a charming young woman.—Bristol Herald Courier.

Darnell-Glass.

A marriage of interest to a wide circle of friends of the contracting parties was solemnized at Big Stone Gap at 8 o'clock Wednesday night, when Miss Lida Darnell became the bride of Mr. E. V. Glass. The marriage took place at the home of the bride, the Rev. J. B. Craft of the Baptist church was officiating. The marriage was witnessed by only a limited number of relatives and friends. The bride is a daughter of M. J. Darnell and is one of the most highly esteemed young women of Scott county. The bridegroom is a man of splendid business qualifications, and has thus far been successful in life. Their many friends wish them a long and happy life.—Gate City Herald.

W. D. McNeil, independent candidate for county clerk at the coming November election, was among the many candidates in town last Saturday.

A. Kyle Morison, prominent lawyer of Big Stone Gap, was a business visitor in Bristol Monday. When asked as to the status of the Empire Coal Land company, a big corporation which has been financially involved for several months, Mr. Morison stated that a committee of bondholders was at work in an effort to straighten out the company's affairs with a view to putting it on its feet. The Empire company owns a vast amount of coal land property in Southwest Virginia but suspended operations some time ago and its affairs are now in the hands of the bondholders and the courts.—Bristol News.

FOR SUPERVISOR

To The Voters of Richmond, Magistrate District.

A number of citizens of Richmond District, regardless of Political affiliation, have urged me to become a candidate for Supervisor, and having received formal republican nomination and believing that I could be of real service to the district and county on the Board of Supervisors, I have decided to become a candidate. If elected I promise to fill the office to the best of my ability.

E. J. PRESCOTT

FOR HOUSE OF DELEGATE

To the Voters of Wise and Dickenson Counties:

I appeal to you to elect me to the House of Delegates of Virginia. I have pledged myself to use every effort, if elected, to secure the passage of a fair election law and one giving the minority party a member of every Electoral Board of its own choosing; and to secure the passage of a fair redistricting bill giving to Southwest Virginia its proper representation in all legislative bodies. I further pledge myself to work continuously for the best interests of all the people of this great section and of the State at large. Being a Democrat, my opportunities for good service and accomplishment in the Virginia Legislature would be greater than those of my opponent. Those of you who know me know that I would earnestly, conscientiously and unselfishly try to carry out my pledges. I hope those of you who do not know me will inquire about both my opponent and me from those who know us before you vote. Respectfully,
J. W. CHALKLEY.
